

2011 AVST Oasis User Conference

October 5-7, 2011

Disneyland Hotel, Anaheim, CA

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: Who should attend the AVST End User Oasis?

A: The conference is intended for all CallXpress End Users.

Q: Can more than one person attend from each company?

A: Yes, as many employees as you like may attend. Each one must complete a registration form and submit payment.

Q: How do I register to attend?

A: Simply complete our online form to register your attendance. An emailed confirmation will be sent to you with payment instructions included.

Q: Do attendees make their own travel plans and do they pay their own expenses?

A: Yes, attendees must make their own plans and pay for their travel and expenses to and from Oasis, including hotel rooms. AVST is hosting all meeting and meals costs.

Q: Has AVST secured any special hotel room rates for this event?

A: No, we are not holding a hotel room block for this event. In deference to your individual budgets we have selected a location that has numerous hotel options and pricing available to you.

Q: May I bring a guest to the Oasis?

A: Guests are invited to attend the evening social events. There is a cost of $75 per guest. Due to insurance restrictions however, all guests must be 21 yrs.or older, no children are allowed.

Q: What is the closest airport?

A: John Wayne Airport at Orange County is the closest airport or another option would be the Long Beach Airport if you are traveling via Jet Blue.

Q: What is the conference attire?

A: Business casual is appropriate for all meeting days. October is generally mild weather in California and temperatures should range between high 60's to mid 70's.