Red Herring Releases Short-list of Finalists for the Red Herring Top 100 Innovators Award

Annual Red Herring Top100 Innovators to be awarded at the Red Herring Fall 2004 Conference

Mountain View, CA, November 12, 2004 — Red Herring today announced the finalists who have been selected for the Red Herring Top 100 Innovators award program. The 100 winners will be unveiled at the Red Herring Fall 2004 conference, December 6-8, 2004 at the Monterey Plaza Hotel in Monterey, California. Dedicated to innovation, this three-day conference will feature CEO keynote presentations, lively dialogue and the unveiling of Red Herring's list of the 100 most innovative companies.

“The quantity and depth of submissions” said Joel Dreyfuss, Editor-in-Chief of Red Herring, “for the list of the Top 100 Innovators shows that imagination and creativity are alive and well in the world of Technology”

Finalists are currently being evaluated to determine the 100 companies that embody innovation, technology, and strategy. The Red Herring editorial team rigorously evaluates companies submitted for the following seven categories: Technology, Financing, Marketing, Sales, Service, Leadership, and Business Strategy.

Companies selected to the Red Herring Top 100 Innovators award program will present their business model and technology at the conference. The three-day intimate conference will focus on new technologies and predictions, along with keynotes and round table discussions. A complete overview and agenda of the event can be found at www.redherring.com/events. Red Herring Fall conference is an invitation-only event for CEOs and select senior executives. To request an invitation to the event please contact Sean Raman by calling 650.428.2900 or email sraman@redherring.com
